

Three Days of Darkness, Three World Split, Easter Great Reveal 1st -13th April 2020

The White Winged Collective Consciousness of Nine through Magenta Pixie

You find yourselves in unprecedented times as you will no doubt be perceiving your current time period and circumstances. From the third dimensional perspective this is indeed accurate and true.

Yet from the soul level, the inner knowing, the DNA templated codices that are activated and online within you, this is a time which you have indeed experienced before, in other time periods and upon other planetary and star systems if you will.

Whilst you incarnated into physical form for a myriad of reasons, for each of you has the celestial, astrological convergence as a life plan or blueprint, ultimately those we call wanderers, starseeds, lightworkers, mapmakers and gridworkers, incarnated for this time period that you experience in your now moment.

You now sit within the 'Eye of the Storm' if you will or indeed that which we would present as 'Three Days of Darkness'.

Timeline fluctuations are now at the speed of cohesive thought, creating instantaneous manifestations from the cohesive group or collective mind.

It is not what is going to happen next that is the question but what can you create? You exist within a zero point field that has manifested literally upon your planet, in the form of a planetary shutdown of your social infrastructure. We have presented our informations to our conduit, Magenta Pixie as to how this shutdown of social infrastructure occurred. Whilst it is important to know the logistics and specifics so you may be informed, especially when those that have had control of your planet are masters in the presentation of confusion and do not give information in a way that allows the people of Earth to make informed decisions, the most important and significant information we can give to you at this time, is that which shall trigger you into action, we mean action of consciousness that holds reality timelines in place. This is the arena where the 'battle' is being fought if you will, and indeed this is more akin to a martial arts combat rather than battle or fight.

This is polarity playing out as it upgrades from its extreme dark/light, evil/good, devil/angel or fear/love presentations into a polarity that is equal in it's coded form and its resulting manifestation, that of love and light if you will. Polarised but complementary.

The birthing of the new polarity dimension is that which is most interesting, most observed and most unknown for it is a place of pure creation as it is zero point. All eyes are on Earth at this point in time, if you will, to observe how the polarity disintegration and reintegration plays out. This involves multiple timelines coming together as a convergence core point within the timelines.

Currently your most probable timeline for Earth holds a diamond core template that we would refer to as Paradise. This is presented as a destination or place for this is indeed truth when it comes to Galactic and Celestial manifestation of consciousness as reality domains.

Those we refer to as service-to-self have held for millennia on your planet the timeline with the iron core template that would be akin to armageddon. Also a reality domain yet this exists fourth dimensionally only as an echo that plays out in its repeated cycles.

This is known within other ascension reality models on your planet as positive harvest or negative harvest - this is the creation of a reality domain that can be lived within or reincarnated into.

It is confusing for many of you to understand how each individual creates its own unique timeline or reality domain, but this is indeed the case. Your thoughts create your reality as we have said so many times within our transmissions.

So too do your collective thoughts create collective and global reality and this is that which takes literal centre stage upon your planet at this time.

The service-to-self individuals use all the magickal arts at their disposal to attempt to create the armageddon Iron Core Template for their timeline and reality domain, known as a negatively polarised dimension or negative harvest.

They do this through anchoring and holding fear and siphoning that fear, uncertainty and panic like adrenaline fuelled states of consciousness and despair emotional states from the unsuspecting humanity at large.

The core structure of the dark, inverted matrix, black box, red spider configuration has been fully dismantled so they hold on to the few back up generators they have left and the siphoned fear from humanity in order to bring cohesion to the timeline, reality domain or harvest.

They do this because if they do not do this their entire reality will be 'recycled' if you will, in truth this is an actual disintegration of that consciousness and that reality. Thought creates reality and they project as much service-to-self energetic as they can to continually hold the iron core armageddon template as their timeline.

This translates upon your physical dimension as a plan for world domination, a new world order agenda and full control of humanity. The service-to-self individuals believe it is their destiny, their cause and their right to create this future reality for your planet Earth. They believe this for they have been given this information from non-physical beings who exist as the armageddon frequency themselves, they are the living essence of the iron core. This is a necessary aspect to polarisation that gives rise ultimately to creation itself through the free will and choice of the creator's holographic aspects of itself, humanity - or whichever species holds the DNA template. This polarised reality plays out over and over within multiple streams of existence and realities hence the reason why you have done this before.

Yet each time the polarity upgrade takes place it is, in itself unique. What is occurring on Earth at this point is even more unique as Earth is a 'daughter' planet if you will to the divine sacred Mother planet that existed in other realities and timelines within your solar system. The male aspect Marduk and the female aspect Tiamat - stand as Kristos and Sophia, the King and Queen as Logos creators of your galactic reality.

Earth and her humanity is the beloved daughter, she is the Princess Aurora, Daughter of the Flame. Created literally from the Soil and Stars of that which was once the shining Jewel of your Galaxy, Tiamat.

Your planet Earth is none other than Gaia, known also as Green Tara, the Jewelled Lady of the Galactic Lake. Riches abound amongst your Earth, your geology, your consciousness, your blood and bone and your DNA. Creation of an entire new Galactic reality is in itself in the making. The birthing is not limited to your planet alone. This is a celestial, galactic and full source expression upgrade.

You are the anchors. The timeline that is the most probable for your planet is the Diamond Core Template that is Paradise. This is a Utopian reality held at the highest point allowing for the codes of Utopia, Nirvana, Agartha, Eden and Paradise to manifest in actual physicality. This is the Ascension timeline and is known as the positive harvest. The creation of the fifth dimension, golden age on earth or what you may know as positive fourth density.

Each of you who hold the knowing of the paradise diamond core template as a future timeline, within the crystalline knowing of self within, hold the creational thought to hold that timeline.

You do not have to 'work hard' at this, for your paradise timeline is an organic one - it does not have to be created. It is already in place as an infinite structure! It has never been taken from you - only obscured by the red spider's web or black box net - a false inverted quarantine surrounding your planet as an electro magnetic grid that is no more - the removal of this web or net allowed for the great reveal. The reveal of the true, organic, infinite reality that is the Diamond Core. This is manifested in physicality as the Iron Core structure at the centre of your planet becomes a Diamond Core. All that occurs in the non physical realms is mirrored, matched and manifested in the physical realms.

The work undertaken by the service-to-self individuals is intense, continuous and draining. The focus must be maintained regularly through the black arts and dark magic in order to maintain the iron core armageddon template which is a created, un-natural and artificial intelligence construct. The core black box generator was indeed most powerful, so much so that the continuous focus was maintained through that which you may know as planetary rings or satellites. However, now that the core has been dismantled, only the emotional siphoning of the people is powering the iron core template....as the 'core' has now been dismantled as a generator, so too has the 'core' of the timeline. This means the focus is not enough to hold that reality - that which you know as planetary and world domination and new world order - in place.

However, there is from the nexus point that delivers this transmission, still the negative back up generators in place and for this reason, those of the light and service to others polarisation will be called to continue to hold the space for the paradise timeline through creational light templates of unconditional love, compassion and the deliverance of light codes from one human point to another, that which you call 'disclosure' or some of you may call this 'red pilling' using a DNA trigger pictorial scene from an entertainment creation text known, most appropriately as The Matrix.

This is that which we mean by deliverance of light codes. These come in from galactic core memory and crystalline DNA activation yet so too are they delivered from one incarnated human to another as your third dimensional structure and reality mirrors, matches and manifests that of the celestial, space time and non physical anti-matter realities.

You hold fast the paradise diamond core template into the ascension timeline through your knowing, your joy, bliss, hope, unity through togetherness and ultimately love. Allow your heart chakras to shine as beacons for it is of more import now than ever before that you add your power, your empowerment within and your light to the creation of the ascension timeline. It is you and your work that has brought you thus far into this manifested reality and it is you and your work that shall hold that paradisiacal light as the final dismantling of the dark lord's hold is achieved.

It is indeed time for celebratory rushes of emotion and collective joy. As the match is won you cheer within the crowd and indeed this is the emotion that assures the creation you most rightly deserve.

Yet hold fast to humility and compassion, even to your brethren who took the dark path, for many were victims in ways many of you cannot fully comprehend. This is the reason we liken this that shall transpire as a martial arts combat, respect is given to the opponent rather than the uncontrolled paradigm that holds retribution and revenge.

Indeed, it is the element of forgiveness that is the highest challenge for many of you, yet forgiveness is like a laser powered silver stream into the diamond core template. It is forgiveness powered itself by the higher golden stream that is justice. When these are bound together as one, forgiveness and justice, without retribution, revenge or disempowerment - this creates the rose gold stream, the rose gold flame that is global and planetary wide healing.

It is the rose gold flame that you hold within your hands now, children of Gaia. The rose gold flame is a trinity configuration, and this is the element, through a merge of numerology and archetypal symbology, that carries you through the zero point manifested experience of 'planetary lockdown' into the freedom of the new world.

The presentation of planetary lockdown holds the energetic frequency of 'Three Days of Darkness'. In it's ultimate expression this is not a literal presentation. We have delivered the codices of this time to you, in previous transmissions, yet we could not impart to you until this time nexus the codices of the three days of darkness. This is due to that which you may know as 'divine timing' which is interpreted within your physical dimension as not presenting the configurations of the game or plan to those who would use technologies to view your consciousness streams and thus future realities. The three days of darkness presentation is now in a place of safety if you will, for viewing it will not change its inevitability.

The reason for this, is that it is upon you. Your time nexus is that which we present as three days of darkness. We look here at three sections of time - this may indeed be engineered or created as a magical act by those who understand the merge of numerology and archetypal symbology as three literal days or three literal weeks or three literal months.

Yet it is not the literal we present here, for the convergence of timelines do not present absolutes. This is regarding the creational period of retreat, hiatus or hermit's path - the global lockdown where you remain predominantly within your physical dwellings.

It is at this time you retreat within and move into the implosion of self that creates and activates stargates upon your planetary sphere and within your electromagnetic energetic make up.

The three days of darkness, is three separate sections of time but indeed also of space, as fractal space within.

We have presented the silver, gold and rose gold threads or flames, this can also be presented as three realities, dimensional domains or worlds, as the space aspect of the three days of darkness as a period of time. Time and Space are different sides of the same coin if you will.

The space aspect is presented as the three world split. We have spoken of this before through our conduit. You are aware of the two world split presented as third dimension and fifth dimension or indeed service-to-self and service to others. The three world split joins the fourth dimension into the model used, yet this can move upwards through the Excalibur codex, vertical pillar of light or vertical axis as three sections as dimensions - one section as third, fourth and fifth - the second section as sixth, seventh and eighth and the third section as ninth, tenth and eleventh. This presents an eleventh dimensional model which is simply given as a trigger in order for you to begin new crystalline downloads from the trinity core diamond templates presented as silver, gold and rose gold.

It is no accident that the three days of darkness and three world split present trinity codices through eleventh dimensional expansion at the time you know as Easter within your biblical texts. You have the crucifixion, the Entombment and the resurrection. Through the numerological and archetypal symbology this becomes the manifested pattern of your current nexus point now time reality.

The 'darkness' within this point is your retreat within, moving not outwards into light but inwards into darkness. This is where information and downloads are received from the source within as opposed to the source without. The physical reality may mirror this pattern through the fractal reality codes in a myriad of ways.

It is the darkness that thus gives rise to the light. The darkness is the retreat, the processing time and the entombment. In the life of the caterpillar emerging as butterfly it is the cocoon.

This is zero point. It is at this time that you manifest Trinity codes as trilocational consciousness and the manifested physical reality of the three world split.

You have cabal, deep state illuminati as one world....you have alliance, white hats, patriots, lightworkers as a second world and you have humanity as the third world if you look at this presentation as a social infrastructure.

As you move forward into this trinity three world split creation you have a reconstruction from control to freedom world which may contain a transhumanism aspect depending on how the service-to-self groups negotiate the forgiveness/justice templates, you have a technological and financial system that presents as co-creation and opportunity for growth and you have the spiritually attuned, consciously ascending individuals who may experience physical three world split in a myriad of different creations and expressions.

So too do you have a three world split through the polarisation of humanity. You have seen tangible evidence of service-to-others and service to self. At the time of the three world split there shall be those who are polarised neutral - able to work through both service to self and service to others as either/or - expression of both or observer. These individuals are rare in the sense that they are very much in the minority in number. They are not unpolarised or in the process of polarising - they are fully polarised within the neutral polarity. They are called from the place of zero point and they are stepping forward now upon your planet in order to hold and keep balance.

It is at the point of completion of a planet that these individuals make themselves known. Only when one polarity attempts to overbalance the other polarity, does the neutral polarity show itself. This has occurred through the service to self attempt of planetary takeover and population reduction. Even whilst the service to self factions were themselves divided on this issue - hence the forgiveness/justice templates are much needed.

The neutral polarised individuals therefore enter with an agenda to rebalance the system and the social structure. They do this through offering assistance to the service-to-others polarity. By their offering of rebalancing they assist in creation the new polarisation for your planet which is indeed a new density of existence.

These neutrally polarised individuals offer not domination or control but co creation and opportunity. However, necessary through their roles may be, they are not service to others polarised and do not, in and of themselves, hold the paradise timeline, Their presence is to recreate balance through the creation of reconstruction architecture to the planetary system.

Again, this can manifest within the physical dimension in a myriad of ways but in the majority of cases this is technological. This may appear to be artificial intelligence which Indigo and crystal individuals are coded to reject. However, in certain cases this is needed to keep balance within a planetary system prior to the final stages of ascension. You will be called to continue to fine tune your intuition even as you take your steps into the new world, for dismantling of the old system and creation of the new is not undertaken overnight, even whilst the energetic shifts and solar pulses are instantaneous.

So we present to you now the 13 days that make up that which we call three days of darkness, dark night of the soul, end of days or indeed the entombment of the Christ or Crystalline energy - giving rise to a worldwide, planetary wide, galactic wide burst of rose gold intense light codes birthed from the merged silver and gold flames. The sign of the trinity shall be emblazoned across the skies at this time and you shall hear the cries within of 'follow that star.'

It is the time that those of the light feel they are truly called home - and that home they are called to is the creation of the higher crystalline grid upon your Earth - and the creation of your Earth into Gaia her higher form as she stands as the beloved daughter of Tiamat.

The thirteen days within your Easter period begin with the fool's journey on April first and end upon Easter Monday 13th April which shall herald the unveiling and present the Great Reveal. Each day within these 13 days shall be 'giant leaps for mankind' if you will, as quantum leaps seven fold beyond that of linear time. We speak here of the growth of consciousness as you create the new world.

You are each of you Wizards - you stand in magic - Priests and Priestesses - keepers of the sacred wisdom - and Healers of the most high as you deliver the sacred rose - broadcast the signal that is the rose gold flame to the world. This brings you into the formation of the square, the tetragrammaton within - and adds the fourth corner to that geometric pattern, that of the Architect.

When you hold the pattern and code of the Architect you stand beyond the Trinity, embracing the three world split as one unified world. The Architect can be walked with the God Complex, as the Atlantean Masters and Service-to-self cabal/deep state have embodied for thousands of your Earth years - or the Architect can be walked with humility, forgiveness/justice templates in place with the Excalibur codex in full activation.

This is the path of Integrity and Sovereignty.

This is the path of the starseeds, wayshowers, lightworkers and wanderers, to walk the path of the Architect of light, holding self empowerment as a construct not power as a god complex entity.

The path laid before you within these thirteen days is a challenge yet you are called to this challenge, you are equipped and you will be successful. It is written, it is in place - so shall it be and so it is.

In divine humble service,

We are the White Winged Collective Consciousness Of Nine
